British and Germans Set Out Contentions Regarding Status of the Captured Ship

British Contend That Appam Should be Returned to Orig-inal Owners and Her German Crew Interned — Ger-mans Wish Her Regarded as Prize and Ambassador Bernsdorff Gives Notice to That Effect—United States Government, it is Said, Will Incline to German View

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, Peb. 2.—The British government will hold that the Appna must be released under clauses 21 and 22 of The Hague convention of 1907, it was stated today. These provide that a merchaniman cannot be converted into an auxiliary cruiser on the high seas and that a merchaniman price can only be taken into a neutral port under certain circumstances of distress, injury of lack of food, and is the does not depart within a stipulated time cannot be carried over to the original owners with one of the rearge. According to the British contention, under these clauses the prize crew must be intermed.

Count Von Bernstorff, the German ambassador, in a formal note to Secretary of State Lansing, gave notice that the Appan came into Hampton Roads under the treaty which guarantees ber to her captors.
